VOLUME SIXTY-SIX — NUMBER TWENTY-FIVE.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JUNE 22, 1944.

O. P. Schumann, Editor and Proprietor.

At Random

Yesterday was the first day of summer.

If that doesn't warm things up—perhaps the national Republican convention on the 26th will do so.

Rah, rah, Dewey! Rah, rah, Bricker! Rah, rah, Stassen! Will it be Dewey and Warner?

A week later 'twill be rah, rah, Roosevelt! Will it be Roosevelt and Wallace?

Campaign speeches are in the writing. Soon the suffering public will have to listen to them. The Dems must defend their stewardship and the Reps will have to show how they could do a better job of running the country.

It seems we can't finish a war before another starts.

Are we going to let pressure groups, such as the CIO, do our thinking for us?

Wonder if Browder will be expecting a cabinet appointment if Roosevelt is elected?

The bass fishin' season begins next Sunday, June 25th.

Two things to remember: Fish bite better just before a rain, and don't forget to spit on your hook.

OPA has authorized distillers to make 40,000,000 gallons extra of whiskey during the coming month. Better increase the supply of aspirin.

Wonder if 50-a-crate eggs wouldn't make a good grade of denatured alcohol. Perhaps that could be used for eggnog.

And, don't forget to buy all the E Bonds your money will buy.

New Bus Schedule Now In Effect

Effective June 16, 1944, the morning bus for Clare, Harrison and Petoskey leaves Detroit at 8:00 a.m. The bus for Sault Ste. Marie will depart 30 minutes later, at 8:30 a.m.

The schedule has been arranged so that both buses will reach Mackinaw City at the same time.

The Petoskey bus will leave Grayling at 3:59 p.m. and the Soo bus at 4:15 p.m.

Albert Grouleff Dies In Muncie, Ind.

Albert Grouleff, 76, widely known Muncie business man and president of the Grouleff-Mauch Lumber Company, died at Ball Memorial Hospital at 9 a.m. Wednesday, May 31, after an extended illness. Mr. Grouleff had been confined to the hospital for many weeks. He was also president of the Muncie Lumber Company and Grouleff Brothers of Greensburg, Indiana.

He was born in Denmark in 1868, the son of Carl and Caroline (Selling) Grouleff, and received his education in the schools of his native land. He came to the United States when he was 16 years of age and settled in the "big timber" region of Michigan, where he learned the lumber business. He became affiliated with the Selling-Hanson Company with headquarters at Grayling, Mich., and remained there until 1901, when he came to Muncie.

Founded Local Business. Associated with L. S. Klus, he founded a lumber business which is now carried on under the name of Grouleff-Mauch. This firm, in addition to its general lumber business, made a specialty of the manufacture of sashes and doors.

Mr. Grouleff was a Freemason of high order, a Noble in the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine at Detroit, a member of Welcome Lodge, Knights of Pythias, the Exchange Club, the Muncie Chamber of Commerce, and the Presbyterian Church. The family home is at 407 Wheeling Ave.

He is survived by the widow, Faye L.; a daughter, Mrs. Edna Lerner, of Chubbuck, Ind.; a granddaughter, Mrs. Regina Bar of Chubbuck; two great-grandchildren, a brother, C. F. Grouleff, of Greensburg, and a sister, Mrs. Olga Boeson, of Greensburg. Taken from a Muncie newspaper.

Mrs. Boeson, a sister of Mr. Grouleff, resided in Grayling for many years, and entertained Mr. and Mrs. Grouleff many times. His numerous friends here will deeply regret his passing.

More Proud to Be An American

(By Gene Alleman)

Seeing is believing. We have just witnessed with our own eyes a remarkable day's demonstration by the 78th Division of Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, in which American doughboys from 48 states demonstrated the combat use of such modern weapons as the automatic rifle, machine gun, mortars, pistols, grenades, anti-tank guns, flame throwers, and rocket firing bazooka.

We have seen doughboys go through the rigorous bayonet drills, hurl grenades at pill-boxes, wield the deadly machete knife in practice combat against Japs, and harden their bodies and steel their nerves by crawling on their bellies through mud holes and barbed wire toward an enemy trench while live bullets cut through the air three feet above their heads, and while dynamite blasts rocked the earth one to five feet away.

We saw doughboys protected by an artillery barrage advance upon fortified points with the aid of the finest military weapons the world has ever seen. All the product of the genius and labor of American industry.

We saw 10,000 doughboys parade in division review amid a blinding rainstorm that drenched everyone. General Doughboy will merit the highest honors a grateful country can bestow. The Navy, the Air Corps, the Marines, and other branches of the service have big jobs to do. Yet it is still the doughboy, armed with a rifle, a pistol and other equipment weighing seventy-six pounds in all, who is the first to engage the enemy in hand-to-hand combat and who is the last to hold the land which he has thus seized. The exploits of their branches of the service have been well publicized. Now seems an appropriate time to give a hand to the man who takes the greatest risks and performs an indispensable service.

The 400 industrial leaders were given a real taste of Army life. Arriving in special trains from Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan, they were garbed in military fatigue clothing, given field rations for a mid-day lunch, fed and lodged in Army barracks.

Visitors had the opportunity to witness actual demonstrations of the use of modern weapons from anti-tank guns to the well known bazooka which fires rocket shells. Artillery laid down a barrage of 105 and 155 millimeter shells while doughboys simulated an advance toward enemy positions. The impact of the day's experience was tremendous. We had come from a civilian world into a military world with only a few hours time between them. Back at home was the normal security of life. We grumbled a bit over gasoline and food rationing. We fuss over lack of this and that. Following this impact of the military is hard. You feel ashamed that any Michigan worker would go out on a strike, or that you had ever grumbled about any petty annoyance of civilian life.

Picture, if you can, the following experience that every man in an infantry company must undergo before he is permitted to enter actual combat. It is called "infiltration training". The setting is a simulated no-man's land, criss-crossed with barbed wire and pocked with shell holes leading to an enemy trench.

The doughboys, armed with rifles, make their way toward the enemy trench. They are firing live bullets in criss-cross fashion over their heads. In a control tower an operator sets off deafening blasts of dynamite that spout up high in the air like the burst of an artillery shell. The blasts spray mud over the men. The whirl of live bullets is in their ears.

Thus the Army conditions each infantryman to actual battle scenes. It is a grim business and it makes you think and think.

The day's program was concluded with a division review. After a hot day, clouds appeared in the West, and soon a heavy thunderstorm broke loose. The 100,000 infantrymen took it as a part of the war training. Without raincoats, General and Private alike participated in the event, while civilians caught the spirit of the occasion and shouted round after round of cheers as the units marched by.

SEEING IS BELIEVING. We only wish that every person on the Michigan front could have shared these experiences and could have SEEN for themselves what the American boys in camp or overseas are doing for them.

It would have made you more proud to be an American!

Evangelistic Service Starting June 25

Miss Zetta Traver, youth evangelist, accompanied by her sister Agnes, Gospel singer and children's worker, will conduct evangelistic services at the City Park, June 25 to July 2. The services are at 7:30 each evening except Saturday, and will be held in a large tent, immediately following the tent meetings, a camp meeting will be held, July 3 to 9. The services are under the auspices of the Free Methodist Church. The Traver Sisters will also be active in the camp program.

Miss Zetta Traver

The Traver sisters have been attending Bible Holiness Seminary of Owosso the past year. Zetta has been an active evangelist for several years. The girls' father is Rev. Wilbur Traver of Cheboygan, a Free Methodist pastor there.

The Traver Sisters use an elaborate set of painted felt-ograms in illustrating their messages. The services will be planned to appeal especially to children but older people will find them just as interesting. Everyone desiring to hear the old-time Gospel message presented in a new way, is cordially invited to the services by Rev. Alva Galkins, pastor of the Free Methodist Church.

Rev. Kuhlman Leaving Grayling Pastorate

Rev. W. H. Kuhlman returned from the annual conference of the Methodist Church at Saginaw, Monday, and reports that a shortage of ministers in this workaday world, people are prone to forget; but the Fourth Estate, we believe, never does. Alpena, Mich., June 10, 1944.

Rev. H. W. Kuhlman, Grayling, Michigan, Dear Mr. Kuhlman: I thought pleasantly of you the other day when a 25-year-old item in The Alpena News mentioned that you had delivered the address on some memorial occasion. When I picked up the Grayling paper yesterday, to learn that tomorrow you are retiring after 41 years of service in the ministry. I am sure that all of those years have been as fine and as full of service as the ones I know about.

Gerald Melichar Wounded In Action

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melichar received a telegram last Friday, informing them that their son, Gerald S. 2nd, had been wounded in action. Gerald had been in the Seabees a year and has been overseas in the European area since February. No other information was given, except that a letter would follow.

Rev. Kuhlman Has Letter from Alpena Editor

Rev. H. W. Kuhlman received the following letter from Emmet Richards, editor of the Alpena News, referring to his announced intention to retire. In this workaday world, people are prone to forget; but the Fourth Estate, we believe, never does.

Alpena, Mich., June 10, 1944. Rev. H. W. Kuhlman, Grayling, Michigan. Dear Mr. Kuhlman: I thought pleasantly of you the other day when a 25-year-old item in The Alpena News mentioned that you had delivered the address on some memorial occasion.

When I picked up the Grayling paper yesterday, to learn that tomorrow you are retiring after 41 years of service in the ministry. I am sure that all of those years have been as fine and as full of service as the ones I know about.

My congratulations to you on a noble record of service and my best wishes for many pleasant years of "retirement" which I feel will not be the idle years that the word might suggest to some people.

With all good wishes, I am Sincerely, Emmet Richards, The Alpena News.

Margot Shop Opens With Much Success

On Saturday—before graduation—Grayling was buzzing with a new line of conversation and activity. For Grayling was the proud possessor of a smart new hotel shop which held its formal opening on that day—located in the Shoppings Inn—specializing in gifts of distinction—known as Margot's—owned and operated by Miss Margaret Cassidy. The Avalanche has withheld this article on the opening of same until the shop would near its completion of design and detail, having opened three weeks earlier than originally planned, in order to accommodate the local graduates of Grayling High School and various colleges.

In spite of Miss Cassidy's referral to the shop and stock as being incomplete, it looked anything but incomplete on that unseasonably warm, bright Saturday—loaded down with gifts which primarily are found only in the smartest shops the country over. The sparkling attractiveness of the crystal ware on display was a beautifully enhanced by the huge basket of exquisitely perfect American Beauty roses, centered in an archway at the back of the shop—a gift from Miss Cassidy's family and Mr. Paul Jones, as was also the delicately tinted basket of snapdragons, accentuating the daintiness of the feminine array of graduation gifts in the window.

Centered over the archway at the back was a good-luck horseshoe floral piece, a gift of Mr. Albert Pochelon, well known florist of Detroit and Grayling. Its singular beauty might be attributed to two factors—the handiwork of the master florist and the variety of flowers used having been selected from our local varieties in the grounds surrounding the Pochelon cabin on the AuSable.

The shop interior, designed by Miss Cassidy herself, combines the modern mode with that of the Mexican Colonial period, with striking results. The color scheme used throughout is made up of delicate shades of green, peach and ivory—the work of Mr. Claude Caranah. In striking contrast to these delicate tones, is one huge poster painting by a New York artist, which is placed opposite the center archway. The subject of the painting is a French flower cart, done in vivid colorings, but with the delicate peach and green shades of the shop predominant in the background. The furnishings, unique and different, were cleverly executed by Mr. Carl Lauri, who truly accomplished a masterful handling of the intricacies of their design.

From Old Quebec comes the idea of the quaint little stairway in one high corner, with little peach gates at the top and bottom, leading the way to the picket fenced balcony above the front doorway—these to accommodate dolls and stuffed animals in this "Kiddie Korner." High above the gifts and furnishings of the shop itself are pastel striped awnings and balconies with tulips peeking over the little picket fences. "Still far from complete are such details," says Miss Cassidy, "for when the shop is finished, one will think that they are outside looking in, instead of the reverse. Ultra modern are the crystal and glass display units such as are being introduced into Detroit's Washington Blvd. and Fisher Building exclusive shops. The neon sign in shades of green over the Margot doorway is by Bab's Sign Service, who will also do the inside lettering.

The opening announcements and advertising were by your Avalanche editor, Mr. O. P. Schumann, who will handle all future advertising for the firm—so watch your local paper for future announcements as special lines are brought out for display, and see them at their loveliest in Margot's window displays which will be changed weekly. By the time our summer season is further advanced, and details are complete, Grayling is going to be proud to be able to boast of having such a shop to grace its main street. "Watch for some effective lighting, later on," says Miss Cassidy—as yet, they are very much in the making. Mr. Paul Jones, one of Detroit's well known electrical engineers, is going to show us what lighting effects can do to enhance beautiful merchandise." Thus far, the window is lighted with fluorescent lights—but the real lighting is yet to come, when materials are available.

Increasing interest and amusement seem to persist among the hotel guests and onlookers daily, over the clever manner in which the little shop folds away for the night.

For the summer months, Miss Margaret will be assisted by Miss Billyann Clippert, who was one of our charming graduates this season.

That you may have only the smartest in gifts, Miss Cassidy will visit all of the smartest gift shows of the country; so make your wants known and she promises to select the unusual or hard-to-find item for which you have been searching. "In that way, I hope to be able to demonstrate my true appreciation of the manner in which my shop has been so graciously received by my home town," says she, and with much earnestness adds: "Before this year is finished, I hope to make my business slogan become a reality—'Margot Gifts Bring the World to You!'"

Letters from Boys
in Service

Mrs. Schmidt lately received the following letter from her son, Howard, who is serving with the U. S. Army in Italy:
June 6-3 o'clock.
Dearest Mother and Devere:
Well, I suppose you know by the radio—the All-Americans made history.
I was so happy, the tears came to my eyes, as the Italians cheered us, kissed us, winned us, and lined the streets—throwing flowers to us.

I always hoped to see Rome standing up and hope the same for Berlin. You don't know how good it seems to go into a city without too much fighting. We had hard fighting all the way and not enough can be said of our good foot soldiers.

Tell Frank I have a gift (souvenir) for him, if I get home with it. Come in handy for a little venison.

We came right behind Gen.
Clark and were feted by the Italians in the most beautiful city in the world. It would have been a shame to have ruined the Vatican City.

That is passed now—and we are at work again. Our mail has slowed up—guess we're going too fast. A beautiful lake is near where we are located. Wish it was K. P. Lake.

The sun is now going down—and we trust the good Lord will guide and watch over us each day in this conflict.

Enjoy your letters; write often.
Goodbye, Mother.
Your son,
Howard.

YOUR INVASION

FROM General Bradley, leading the Invasion ground forces, right through every rank, American men now face a brutal, desperate, able enemy. For this invasion has only begun—before our fighters lies a hard and bloody task, one that demands all their courage, backed by all your faith in their ultimate victory.

That faith will be tested many times in this invasion—in grim struggles, setbacks, possibly even temporary defeats. It will be up to you to remember that early victories usually only mean more savage opposition from a foe made more bitter, more ruthless as the shadow of his doom grows larger—up to you to keep that faith in days and nights of gloom as well as in hours of triumph.

There is little that you can do to show that you realize what they must face, perhaps for many months. But one thing you can do—back the attack with every dollar you can spare! Let the Bonds you buy in this greatest of Drives be the measure of your belief in their ultimate victory!

STATE OF MICHIGAN

In the Circuit Court For the County of Crawford

In the Matter of an Application For the Vacation of Ash Street, a Platted But Unopened Street in Grayling Park, Grayling Township, Crawford County, Michigan.

ORDER FOR HEARING

At a session of said Court held in the City of Gladwin, in said Circuit, on the 24th day of May, 1944.

Present: Hon. John C. Shaffer, Circuit Judge.

Application having been duly filed in this Court for the vacation of the following described street located in Grayling Park, Grayling Township, Crawford County, to-wit:

All that certain street designated on the recorded Plat of Grayling Park as "Ash Street" said street extending along the North 1/4 line of Section 22, 26, N. R. 4 W. from the shore of Lake Margrethe to Grayling Avenue, said street being shown said Plat as 33 feet wide and 8 feet long.

For the reasons that said platted street has never been opened, worked, improved or used as a street, that the same is overgrown with trees and wild growth and could not be used as a street without clearing, grading and surfacing the same, that the expenditure of public money thereon would not be justified and because the opening of said street would serve no useful purpose.

Upon motion of Charles Moore, attorney for the freeholders filing said application,

IT IS ORDERED, that said application be heard by this Court on the 11th day of July, 1944, the opening of Court on said date, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, and that persons interested in said matter appear and show cause, any there be, as to why said application should not be granted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that true copies hereof be published, posted and served as required by law.

John C. Shaffer, Circuit Judge.

A true copy.

Bessie Peterson, Clerk of the Court. 6-1
